Our Mission:

The Beaverton Historical Society—Provides education through the preservation, interpretation, and celebration of our historic past.

The Beaverton History Center—home to the Society's diverse collection of stories, archives and artifacts, and provides an environment that honors and promotes preservation.

Our Vision:

To be recognized as the primary repository for local history and encourage family-oriented events that nurture appreciation of the past, while instilling pride in our community.

Values:

- Recognition of diverse cultures that create our social fabric
- Appreciation and respect of elders for their collective knowledge and contributions
- Interpretation of events that link our past to the present, and into the future
- Preservation to conserve and protect our heritage
- Education to instill a love of history
- Celebration to honor our heritage with affirming projects and events

Who?

We are a nonprofit, community-oriented group of Beaverton-area volunteers with a passion for preserving history and creating a legacy for the future.

What?

We gather and share stories and artifacts, while providing families with a fun learning environment that enhances a love of history.
